

The Bangladesh government has taken a bold initiative to develop human resources working in the IT/ITES industry by building managerial and technical competencies through a world-class training program designed specifically for management professionals.

With the growing significance of IT/ITES industry vis-a-vis the vision of digital Bangladesh, IBA of University of Dhaka, in collaboration with Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) – Delhi and Indian Institute of Management (IIM) – Ahmedabad with support from the ICT division, is launching this program, titled Advanced Certificate for Management Professionals (ACMP) to equip aspiring business leaders with the much required knowledge and skills to excel in a rapidly changing global business environment.

The first phase of ACMP is currently ongoing with 2 batches of 96 students at Institute of Business Administration (IBA) University of Dhaka and the successful candidates will be awarded certificate by IBA. The first phase is expected to be completed in the last week of January.

The second phase of the ACMP program which will begin in February 2018 and you are invited to send nominations for managers from your organization.

ACMP will be fully funded by the government of Bangladesh for the first 500 participants to be selected from the pool of nominations by IT/ITES organizations. The scholarship will cover tuition fees as well as the lunch and snacks on training days.

Please find below eligibility criteria for ACMP

- 2 years of work experience after graduation, supervising a team of 5 employees
- or
- 5 years of work experience after graduation

Course Highlights

- Classes will be conducted from 9:00am to 5:00pm
- Classes will be held 2 days a week for 12.5 weeks
- Classes will be held at IBA, University of Dhaka

Classes will be held either on:

- Thursdays & Fridays (Block 1)
- or
- Saturdays & Sundays (Block 2)

Application Process

Following are the two alternatives through which a participant can apply.

Option 1: Send the scanned copy of the filled application form, filled nomination form and CV (preferably in the attached format) to this mail.

Option 2: Fill the online application form (<https://goo.gl/GQKiLE>). The nomination form and the CV (attached to this mail) would be needed to be uploaded while filling the online application form.

For Any Further Queries Please Call: +8801629143425 , +8801792578768